Year 5 - Topic 8- Freedom and Responsibility

What should I already know?

The importance of admitting wrong and being reconciled with God and each other

What will I be learning?

- Make links to show how feelings and beliefs about the relationship of freedom and responsibility affect their behaviour and that of others.
Compare their own and other people's ideas about questions concerning the use of freedom and responsibility and know that these questions are sometimes difficult to answer.
Make links between the stories of the Ten Commandments, the Beatitudes and other texts studied and belief in God's rules for living freely and the responsibility this brings.
- Give reasons why believers choose to live by God's laws.
- Make links to show how feelings and beliefs in the laws God has given us affect their behaviour and that of others.
- Engage and respond to questions of life in the light of religious teaching on the freedom and responsibility given to us by God through his laws.
- Show how their own and others' decisions about freedom and responsibility are informed by beliefs and values.
- Describe and show understanding of scripture, beliefs, ideas, feelings and experiences of living according to God given laws and how when we fail to keep these laws and are contrite we can be reconciled with God and with others.
Show understanding of how religious belief in the freedom and responsibility of living by God's law shapes our lives.

His Laws Make Us Free

Chorus

No matter if you're ten or three, Our loving God wants you to be Filled with faith and joy and peace.
His laws make us free.

Verse 1

In your heart God plants a seed
To know and love him willingly. Those who love you help it grow
So you can live filled with hope.

Verse 2

God's rules help us to love like him.
They make it easier to understand.
For if we listen and obey,
We know what to do and say.
